THE RECORDS OF

MASON COUNTY LOGGING COMPANY

Circa 1905-1940

Indexed by: THE PUBLIC LAND SURVEY OFFICE

December 1992

This is a collection of survey fieldbooks which has been in a box in the vault for some time. No one is exactly sure where these records came from. It is thought that they came from Blaine McGillicuddy, a timber cruiser, employed by Mason County Logging Company. There are references to Vance Logging Company and Bordeaux Logging Company. It is not known whether McGillicuddy worked for these other companies or whether he came into possession of their records. It is the perception in this office that those companies later became known as Mason County Logging Company.

The collection has been filmed and the film now resides in a drawer in the vault. The roll is entitled "MASON COUNTY LOGGING CO."-T. Smith

The box of fieldbooks has been sent to the Records Center for permanent storage.
