

PORT OF TACOMA

NOTICE OF INTENT TO OBTAIN CUSTODY OF VESSEL

Washington Registration & HIN Unknown, Purportedly a 44' Fiberglass Motorboat

The Port of Tacoma (Port) declared the vessel, with Washington Registration and Hull ID Unknown, Purportedly a 44' motorboat, as derelict, abandoned, or both. The vessel is an approximate forty-four foot fiberglass motorboat left on Port property located at 401 Alexander Avenue East, Tacoma, WA 98421 and pictured below.

The Port, acting as an authorized public entity with the authority granted in RCW 79.100, intends to take custody of the vessel on October 3, 2016 (Custody Date). After taking custody of the vessel, the Port may use or dispose of it without further notice to the owner.

In order to keep the vessel, before the Custody Date, the owner must:

- Move it to an anchorage area, moorage facility, or storage location that authorizes the vessel.

If the owner wants to reclaim the vessel after the Port has custody, or wants to challenge the Port's decision to take custody, the owner must file a written appeal with the Pollution Control Hearings Board (PCHB) and serve a copy on the Port. Addresses are in the boxes below:

and or call the PCHB at the number above with appeal questions. The owner may submit the appeal immediately, but the PCHB must receive it no later than November 2, 2016 (Appeal date). The owner waives the right to a hearing if the PCHB does not receive an appeal on or before the Appeal Date. The owner is then liable for any costs incurred by Entity in responding to the vessel. The Owner must comply with particular and certain deadlines and other formal guidelines set forth in Washington State law and Rules. If the Owner does not understand the appeal process, then the Owner should seek legal counsel immediately. Port staff cannot provide you any legal advice.

The owner may be liable for any costs incurred by the Port in responding to the vessel. These costs may include all administrative costs incurred by the Port, removal and disposal costs, and costs associated with environmental damages directly or indirectly caused by the vessel. If there is a law suit, the successful party may receive reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. The Port also may pursue any other remedies available under law.

For more information, contact Erin DeBroux at the Port at 253-592-6759 if you would like to discuss your situation at the Port.
