

Not as harmless as you think.

The most frequently reported workplace injuries are caused by working at computers. There are many ways to reduce these injuries. Talk to your Safety Coordinator and schedule an ergonomics assessment today.

Guess what's in the box.

$24,000. That's roughly the amount we'll have to pay to cover his back injury claim. Use proper lifting techniques. Train. Learn. Be safe.

Safety

- Fourth
- Second
- Twelfth
- First
- Sixth

What's your choice?

You want to do your job, and do it now. But, safety should be your first thought before starting any task. For advice on a more secure workplace, talk to your Safety Coordinator today.

Confident of your surroundings?

You might never slip on a banana peel at work, but you could trip over a misplaced box or a tool. Look around. Make sure everything is in its place. Talk to your Safety Coordinator today about ways to make the workplace safer.

HI, MY NAME IS

I'M YOUR SAFETY COORDINATOR. NEED HELP?

Safety. Health. Your call.

DNR's Safety Coordinators help keep the workplace safe. There are safety coordinators for each work unit. Do you have a question? A concern? Talk to your Safety Coordinator today. Learn. Train. Be safe.

Is your driving as well-rounded?

Most people think they are great drivers—it's those other people on the road causing all the problems. In fact, all drivers need to refresh their skills. Talk to your Safety Coordinator about scheduling a Defense Driving class. You'll be surprised at what you didn't know.

