

Here are some home maintenance tips for wildfire prevention:

Be sure to keep a clean and green area around the home (30').

Clean up dead and downed needles and leaves.

Keep roofs and gutters clean of all debris

Keep driveways clear of overhanging brush and trees

Have an address sign at the driveway so emergency responders can find you

Fire resistive plants are great way to reduce the fire danger around your home with out taking away its natural beauty.

For more information on plants that are fire safe contact your local landscape professional or nursery.

Escape debris burns are the number one cause of fires by people so always tend your outdoor fire.

More information at:

www.firewise.org

Here are some home maintenance tips for wildfire prevention:

Be sure to keep a clean and green area around the home (30').

Clean up dead and downed needles and leaves.

Keep roofs and gutters clean of all debris

Keep driveways clear of overhanging brush and trees

Have an address sign at the driveway so emergency responders can find you

Fire resistive plants are great way to reduce the fire danger around your home with out taking away its natural beauty.

For more information on plants that are fire safe contact your local landscape professional or nursery.

Escape debris burns are the number one cause of fires by people so always tend your outdoor fire.

More information at:

www.firewise.org

Here are some home maintenance tips for wildfire prevention:

Be sure to keep a clean and green area around the home (30').

Clean up dead and downed needles and leaves.

Keep roofs and gutters clean of all debris

Keep driveways clear of overhanging brush and trees

Have an address sign at the driveway so emergency responders can find you

Fire resistive plants are great way to reduce the fire danger around your home with out taking away its natural beauty.

For more information on plants that are fire safe contact your local landscape professional or nursery.

Escape debris burns are the number one cause of fires by people so always tend your outdoor fire.

More information at:

www.firewise.org